

Case Study : Table Top Support

The ASM-614 is part of a table top support assembly. It is used to help lock the table in position.

This part is molded, sintered, and plated, in order to be able to withstand up to 240 pounds of pressure.

This part was created to replace a plastic part used by our customer that kept breaking.

